FULL STEAM AHEAD — Circleville Tiger end Larry Hannahs took a pass from quarterback Mike Hosler and romped for 19 yards last night before being brought down by Logan's Drake (72). Five plays later the Tigers scored their only touchdown of the evening when halfback Walt Arledge plunged over from three yards out. The practice tilt ended in a 7-7 deadlock, with Logan coming back to score in the second period. (Photo by Beaver Studio)

Tigers, Logan Tie In Football Preview

Local football for 1957 got off to a rousing start with the Circleville Tigers battling Logan to a 7-7 deadlock in a pigskin preview last night on the local gridiron.

A large crowd, which displayed plenty of enthusiasm, was on hand to witness a thrilling show by the Tiger gridders, an excellent performance by the CHS Band and a hilarious football contest by the Band Mothers.

The program got underway with a scrimmage session between the Circleville and Logan reserves. Playing two quarters the visitors ended on top, 20-0.

However, the lopsided score was in part due to the fact that reserve coach John Adler used mostly freshmen and a few sophomores. Logan used all upper classmen.

* * *

GIVING an indication of what is to come this season, Coach Tom Bennett's varsitymen showed signs of a well-oiled grid machine, but also displayed some weaknesses which will have to be corrected.

Coach Bennett especially was pleased when the Tigers scored the first time they got their hands on the ball, moving 45 yards to pay dirt in eight plays. The tally came when Walt Arledge plunged through the middle from three yards out. Quarterback Mike Hosler passed to Jon Parcher for the extra point.

Another bright spot was the CHS passing attack which netted four completions in seven attempts, with quarterback Hosler connecting for three and halfback Ray Phifer one.

The Tigers committed three fumbles but recovered two of them. Logan bobbled twice, losing the pigskin both times.

Playing the two-quarter practice session without a kickoff, Logan started the test with the ball on its own 30 yard line.

The visitors promptly racked up two first downs, moving the ball to the CHS 44 yard line. At this point Logan quarterback Morgan, attempting a pass, dropped the ball when he was smothered by end Jon Parcher. Fullback Dick Bircher recovered for the locals.

* * *

WASTING no time the Tigers started moving goalward. The attack was sparked by a Hosler to Larry Hannahs pass, good for 19 yards. The TD came five plays later.

Logan again took the ball on the 30 and proceeded to move for a first down. After moving to the CHS 40 the visitors were penalized 15 yards for holding. On the next play they fumbled with Roger Wolfe recovering for Circleville.

The Tigers threatened again shortly before the quarter ended when Hosler hit Parcher with an aerial good for 17 yards. However, the period ended with the ball on the Logan 12-yard line.

Logan dominated play in the second quarter, racking up six first downs to three for the locals and managed to hold on to the ball for most of the period.

Starting second quarter play from the 30 yard line, Hosler turned in the longest run of the evening for Circleville when he slipped through center for 20 yards before being brought down at midfield.

A few seconds later the visitors gained possession of the ball by recovering a CHS fumble. Finding some holes in the CHS line, the Logan backs chalked up some yardage. Most of the damage was done by halfback Drake who managed to shake loose for 25 yards only to have the run nullified by a clipping penalty.

* * *

AFTER stopping the opponents by intercepting a pass, the Tigers were forced to punt.

With Drake doing most of the running, Logan moved 61 yards in 13 plays to make the score, 7-6. Drake punched over on a one yard plunge for the TD. He then deadlocked things by sweeping end for the extra point.

With time running out, Circleville made another strong bid to score. Arledge, Phifer and Hosler reeled off 40 yards in five plays but the practice session ended as a long pass from Hosler to Arledge fell incomplete.

Coaches Bennett and Dick Boyd said they were pleased with the scrimmage but pointed out that the Tigers still need polish and additional work on defense.

According to the coaches none of the Tigers suffered injuries other than the normal bumps and bruises.

The local grid season officially opens Friday when the Tigers travel to Athens. The first home game is the following Friday with Chillicothe.

CHS Bandsmen In Debut at Grid Preview

Circleville High School's marching band, making its first appearance of the season, presented an entertaining show during the annual pigskin preview held on the local gridiron last night.

Directed by Truman Eberly and led on the field by Drum Major Mary Ann Edstrom, the musicians' theme for the evening was "Here Comes the Band".

Giving spectators an idea of what a band is made of, the CHS unit introduced the various instruments comprising the local band.

Miss Edstrom and her majorettes highlighted the introduction by doing a dance to the tune of some solid rhythm. The majorettes are Marilyn Barthelmas, Flo and Jo Goldschmidt and Sally Montgomery.

* * *

PART of the program was devoted to introducing 16 members of the band. They included Dorothea Kutler, Nancy Myers, Stephanie Marion, Gary Reefer, Jim Patrick, Jim Spaulding, Karne Rase, Charles Sisco, Sharon Thompson, Johnny Adkins, Dick Walker, Marilyn Hartman, Jim Wellington, Brian Bell, Virginia Anderson and Henry McCain.

The band is slated to appear Wednesday at the Pickaway County Fair and a week from Wednesday at the Jackson Apple Festival.

Phone Workers Back at Posts

Things were normal again today at the local office of the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. in the wake of a partial work stoppage Thursday night.

Yesterday company and union officials met to start grievance procedures regarding the discharge of an operator recently. In protest of the firing, 10 operators walked off the job at 7 p. m. Thursday.

After yesterday's meeting began the operators agreed to go back to work while the grievance is being processed. According to company officials there was no interruption in service because of the brief walkout.

4 Check Forgers Given Sentences

TOLEDO (AP)—Four men convicted of forging government checks were sentenced in U.S. District Court Friday. Judge Frank L. Kloeb told them he would double the penalties if they ever appear in his court again.

The men were Edward L. Shoe, 36, of Houston in Shelby County, five years in prison; his brother Raymond, 23, also of Houston, four years; Charles W. Shipp, 25, of Wapakoneta and Ralph Sage Jr. 30 of Sidney, both four years.

The four were arrested in July after Raymond Shoe attempted to pass a forged check in a Wapakoneta store.

Uuderground Park Fund Given Nod

COLUMBUS (AP) — The Underground Parking Commission Friday authorized issue of $5 million in bonds to finance a garage under the Statehouse grounds.

The commission will sue its secretary, Alvin Alexander, to issue a prospectus on the bonds. Alexander opposed issuing the bonds in a vote. He said he questions the constitutionality of the act creating the commission and exempting the property from taxes.

The move will bring about a quick Ohio Supreme Court test of the project's legality. The same procedure was followed by the Ohio Turnpike Commission, which faced court tests from various sources.

45 GIs Discharged, Flunk IQ Examination

FT. LEONARD WOOD, Mo. (AP)—An Army spokesman said Friday that 45 recruits were given honorable discharges here because of low scores on an intelligence test.

The discharges were part of a Defense Department program to keep the Army within its 1958-59 budget. Trimming of Army strength 50,000 men by Jan. 1 is the aim.

Cuban Troops Quell Second Rebel Outbreak

Batista Government Claims All Is Quiet In Interior Capitals

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Tanks and armored cars manned by heavily armed troops patrolled the streets of Cienfuegos today after the second outbreak of rebel action in two days.

Unconfirmed reports indicated the total of dead and wounded might reach as high as 125.

President Fulgencio Batista's armed forces were on the alert throughout Cuba but reports from the six provincial capitals said calm prevailed.

Army planes and Coast Guard vessels kept a coastal watch to prevent any landings of reinforcements for rebel leader Fidel Castro.

The second bloody outburst in the south central Cuban sugar port of Cienfuegos occurred Friday after the government said it had completely smashed the previous day's attack.

Apparently some diehard dissidents had hidden in buildings when airborne troops and armor supported by warplanes quelled the first outbreak.

* * *

GOVERNMENT planes, tanks, armored cars and troops carried out a furious assault against the small bands of rebel holdouts.

The military command said 40 to 50 rebels were killed or wounded in the first attack while 12 government troops were killed and 13 wounded. Telephoned reports from Cienfuegos indicated casualties on both sides in the second attack might reach 50 persons killed or wounded.

Street patrols hunted possible survivors of the original dissident group which was believed to have numbered up to 400.

Cubans in the naval base city identified the revolt leader as a former navy lieutenant, Jose San Roman Toledo.

He reportedly called himself a "colonel of the revolutionary movement" supporting Castro, who operates from mountains of southeast Cuba. San Roman was believed to have fled to the hills behind Cienfuegos.

Cubans credited San Roman, aided by sailors, with first capturing the Cayo Loco naval station near Cienfuegos at dawn Thursday. Moving into town, he picked up support from the 60 maritime police and distributed naval station arms to civilian sympathizers of Castro.

They captured the national police headquarters and controlled most of the city of 52,000 persons. Then Army troops began to arrive after noon.

After bloody street battles, the government claimed the revolt was smashed.

Fayette Death Case Veiled In Mystery

WASHINGTON C. H. (AP) — The discovery of a small alabaster vase Friday added a new mystery to the hatchet slaying of a widow July 2.

When Mrs. Sarah C. DeWitt, 86, was murdered in her home, a small vase which sometimes contained coins and bills figured in the investigation. When the vase could not be found, authorities thought whoever killed Mrs. DeWitt might have taken it.

Sheriff Orland Hays searched for the vase, but it did not turn up until Friday when the house was opened to display household goods collected for auction. The vase was found on a writing desk where it had always been kept by the widow.

How it got there is the mystery.

Among theories is one that someone, possibly the killer, gained access to the house and put the vase back in its proper place. It has also been suggested that some workman, engaged in gathering up the household goods, found it and put it there.

A number of suspects were picked up for questioning after the body of the widow was found, but nothing was ever uncovered to link any one person to the crime.

Daytonian Is Lucky Man Four Times Over

DAYTON (AP)—John Weisman, 49, was lucky four times.

Police said Dolphus Cox walked into the Standard Register Co. and told his former foreman, Weisman "This is for getting me fired."

Cox, 40, took out a revolver and pulled the trigger four times. The gun didn't fire.

A municipal court judge Friday sentenced Cox to a year in jail and fined him $1,000 for assault with a deadly weapon.

Dramatic Break Awaited In Arkansas School Fuss

Ike, Brownell Hold Parley On Arkansas Racial Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower flew back to the capital today for high level talks on racial segregation problems.

The President went immediately to the White House and a conference with Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell on the Arkansas integration crisis.

He was to meet later with other officials for talks on foreign affairs and government financing.

The President intends to return to his Newport vacation headquarters tonight. He probably will stop on the way at Baltimore, Md., for a look-in at the debutante party for his young niece, Ruth Eisenhower.

In Little Rock, Arkansas, Gov. Orval E. Faubus has challenged the federal courts and the President in using the National Guard to bar Negroes from attending classes in Central High School.

Eisenhower has called on the governor to cooperate in the court ruling calling for racial integration and has declared he will use every legal means at his command to uphold the Constitution.

In Newport Friday James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, told a news conference the President has not changed his stand against the use of federal troops to enforce integration.

At a Washington news conference last July 17, Eisenhower was asked whether he was aware he had authority under a post civil war law "to use military force to put through school integration in the South." The President replied:

"I can't imagine any set of circumstances that would ever induce me to send federal troops into any area to enforce the order of a federal court, because I believe the common sense of America will never require it."

Asked whether there has been any change in Eisenhower's position on that matter, Hagerty replied "no."

Asked then whether the President still is against the use of force to obtain compliance with federal court orders on school integration, the press secretary said "yes."

But Hagerty said it looks to him as if the situation is the exact opposite of what civil rights opponents feared—that it is the state government, not the federal government, which has resorted to force in an integration dispute.

Hagerty declined comment on a new Faubus telegram to Eisenhower offering to give the FBI certain information which the governor said led him to call out the National Guard in Little Rock to preserve, as he put it, peace and order.

In Washington, Brownell instructed the FBI to accept from Faubus any information he wants to present for using National Guardsmen to block integration.

President Eyes Mideast Crisis

Quarantine Hinted For Red-Tainted Syria

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower flew back to Washington today amid reports he is ready to speak out in a new move to quarantine the Communist infection in Syria.

Eisenhower's trip from his Newport, R. I., vacation headquarters came against this background:

1. Diplomatic officials disclosed consideration is being given to a possible second airlift of American arms to a neighbor of Syria-Iraq this time.

2. The Air Force readied eight big C124 Globemasters to fly U.S. weapons, including 106 millimeter recoilless rifles, to jittery Jordan.

3. An all-out publicity boom apparently was underway in Amman, Jordan's capital, to spotlight the arrival of airlifted arms there Monday. A muscle-flexing parade of the weapons was expected, with 200 invitations sent out for ceremonies featuring a speech by U.S. Ambassador Lester D. Mallory.

4. Secretary of State Dulles was said to favor a strong presidential warning the United States would consider its own vital interests threatened by any encroachment on Syria's neighbors.

* * *

LAST APRIL Eisenhower said that maintaining the territorial integrity of Jordan, threatened at the time by a Communist coup, was a vital U. S. interest.

Lebanon, another neighbor of Syria, is reported pressing the United States for a public reaffirmation of the Middle East resolution of last March. Approved by Congress at Eisenhower's request, this document pledged U.S. military-economic backing for any Middle East country with the will to resist Red instrusion.

Jordan was chosen first for the arms airlift, officials said, because young King Hussein's regime is considered the most seriously threatened by the Communist take-over of power in Syria.

Right-of-Way Cost: About $5000 a Foot

CLEVELAND (AP) — The cost of road building has reached a record level. Ohio has been asked to pay over $1 million for a 200-foot stretch of right-of-way, an average of $5,000 a foot.

The Cleveland Lutheran High School, with an enrollment of 527, stands directly in the path of the proposed Inner Belt Freeway system. Appraisers for the high school have set the value of the property at near $1.4 million.

Furrow Queen Is Fulton County Girl

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Queen of the Furrow is Ann D. Lane, a pretty 16-year-old Fulton County girl. She will reign over the World's Conservation Exposition and Plowing Matches Sept. 17-20 at Peebles.

The 5 foot 5, brown-haired Ann, one of four children of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lane, Rt. 3, Delta, was chosen Friday night from among 10 finalists, winners of regional competition.

The four judges based their decision on attractiveness, poise and personality.

Ann will go to New York City Sunday where next week she will greet plowmen from 14 nations. They will arrive in New York en route to the world competition.

She also will appear on several television shows in New York.

Ann, who hopes to become an airline hostess, won the regional County fair. She represented Defiance, Fulton, Hancock, Henry, Putnam, Paulding, Williams, Lucas and Wood counties.

The other nine finalists who will serve as Ann's court, are Rosalie Ridgeway, 18, Rt. 1, New Vienna; Peggy Parks, 16, Rt. 3, Oak Hill; Connie Nethers 16, Toboso; Carol Packer 19, Rt. 2, Adena; Jane Mitchell, 18, Rt. 3, Plain City; Janice Sidley, 20, Painesville; Ruth Ann Kiracofe 18, Rt. 3, Camden; Marvene Hoover 19, Rt. 1, Crestline; and Judy Reeser, 18, Bradford.

More than 1,000 Ohio farm girls entered the competition.

Two Theater Burglars Nabbed In Act by Owner, Deputies

An attempted burglary at the North Drive-In Theater on Route 23 was thwarted last night by the quick action of owner William Ballou and Deputy Sheriffs Charles Felkey and John Wolford.

Two Columbus men, Clarence Price, 25, and Virgil Lane Jr., 22, were apprehended in the theater's projection booth. They were brought to the Pickaway County Jail to await filing of charges.

According to the Deputies, the men were discovered in the booth by Ballou at approximately 2:15 a. m. After notifying Sheriff Charles Radcliff the two men were in custody within a short period of 10 minutes.

Rushing to the scene, Felkey and Wolford captured the pair behind a door of the booth. The burglars gained entry by breaking a window.

* * *

ACCORDING to Ballou no money was taken, but the intruders were in the act of forcing a cigarette machine when apprehended. They also ransacked a desk and several other rooms the owner said.

The lawmen said both men admitted the entry. Ballou was high in his praise for the quick response on the part of Felkey and Wolford. The officers in turn said Ballou handled the situation in a commendable manner which allowed them to make the arrest with utmost ease.

Judge To Rule On Delay in Integration

Little Rock Board Files Request for Indefinite Stall

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A dramatic break in the struggle between Gov. Orval Faubus and federal authority over the volatile Little Rock integration question may come from U.S. District Court here today.

U. S. District Judge Ronald N. Davies of Fargo, N. D., is expected to rule on the city school board's request that integration be legally postponed for an indefinite period so tension can ease and education at the school can return to normal.

Little Rock has held the nation's attention since Monday night when Gov. Faubus, in a dramatic move to halt integration, sent a company of National Guardsmen to take over the school campus. He said his reason was to head off violence.

School opened Tuesday with about 2,000 white students walking to classes through a ring of Guardsmen bristling with rifles and bayonets. Wednesday the Guardsmen blocked entrance of nine Negroes which the school board had previously enrolled and found eligible.

* * *

CROWDS VARYING from handfuls to an estimated 700, all white and predominantly pro-segregation, have showed up at the school grounds daily but no violence has resulted.

At the court hearing today the school board will give testimony to back up its claim that since Faubus placed troops around the high school the tension has made teaching difficult.

Thurgood Marshall, attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said the NAACP "can't go along" with the postponement request.

Marshall arrived here Friday from New York to help represent the nine Negro students.

Marshall conceded that the eyes of the segregated Southern states would be on Little Rock and the outcome here could set a precedent that would have direct bearing on the integration question elsewhere.

Generally two broad courses of action could result from the court action today. A temporary suspension of the U. S. District Court integration order might produce a lull in the tension and a temporary truce between Faubus and federal authority.

If the court denies the request the struggle would have to resume in case Faubus did not retreat from his stand.

If the governor had any idea of backing down it was not apparent because Guardsmen, although reduced to a token force, were ordered to stay on duty at the high school this weekend.

* * *

AND A FRESH company was called up for duty Monday at the school to relieve the men on duty this week.

Faubus' only move which could be construed as conciliatory was an offer Friday to have staff aides and his personal attorney turn over to federal authorities his evidence that violence was imminent in Little Rock when he sent troops to the school.

The governor's contention is that he did not technically move to prevent integration but to preserve peace and order. However, he admitted freely that his action had the effect of denying Negroes admittance to the previously all-white school.

Tax Receipts High Again

Week's Sales Top '56 Total

Sales tax collections in Pickaway County totaled $8,110.15 for the week ending August 24, according to a report released yesterday by State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy.

The figure was the second highest weekly total of the fiscal year beginning July 1. The total was 30 per cent higher than the preceding week this year and 17 per cent higher than the corresponding week of 1956.

Local sales tax receipts for the first seven weeks of the fiscal year are now only one per cent behind collections for the same period of last year.

Receipts from the sales of the prepaid tax stamps in the entire state totaled $3.6 million for the August 24 week, a decline of .79 per cent from the same week of last year.

51 Beauties Eye Naming of Miss America

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Fifty-one beauties are primping for the ball tonight where one of them will be crowned Miss America 1958.

The nation's queen of talent and beauty will step forward to the stage of a crowded Convention Hall to receive the crown to be surrendered by the present Miss America, Marian Ann McKnight of Manning, S. C.

The 10 semifinalists will be announced first. Soon, the field will be narrowed to five and then the week - long beauty contest will reach its climax when the girl judged the most talented and beautiful in the land will step forward to be crowned.

The final preliminary beauty and talent competition ended Friday night with three gorgeous contestants from Pennsylvania, Oregon and North Carolina emerging with top honors.

The talent competition resulted in a tie between Jennie Rebecca Blatchford, a 23-year-old blue eyed blonde from Holidaysburg, Pa., and Judith Faye Hansen, 19, also a blue eyed blonde, from Astoria, Ore.

Miss North Carolina, Elaine Herndon, 18, walked off with the swim suit competition.

Miss Blatchford performed a sparkling baton twirling demonstration and Miss Hansen sang from the opera "La Boheme."

Patrol Seeking Data On Crash Near Franklin

LEBANON (AP)—Highway patrolmen today waited for a chance to question James E. Postlewait, 30, of Hamilton about a collision that killed Vaughn Duvall, 43, of Middletown.

It happened on U.S. 25, a mile and a half south of Franklin, a few minutes after midnight. Both men were alone, patrolmen said. Postlewait is in critical condition in Middletown Hospital.

Scientists Study Manpower Needs

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Scientists and engineers concluded a two-day meeting Friday by reviewing the utilization of highly technical manpower.

Dr. Howard L. Bevis, president emeritus of Ohio State University and chairman of President Eisenhower's Committee on Scientists, presented the review.

The shortage of scientists and engineers was discussed. Dr. Bevis said his committee is working to provide statistics to give a basis for more informed estimates of future needs.

Chicago's 'Mad Ripper' Nabbed after 8th Stabbing

CHICAGO (AP) — A lean, tousled ex-night watchman was seized as Chicago's "Mad Ripper" Friday night, police said, shortly after the stealthy stabber knifed his seventh and eighth victims.

Joseph P. Caraher, 39, was captured after a blocks - long chase by a group of rock-throwing men who drove him into the arms of an offduty policeman.

The chase began when two men said they saw Caraher stab a 12-year-old girl on the Northwest Side. They roused neighbors and raced after the fleeing attacker.

"Why are they picking on me?" Caraher mumbled as Policeman John Keane held him at gunpoint until more law officers arrived. He cursed his captors as "German spies."

Police said Caraher was drunk and talking incoherently. They reported he was carrying a blood-stained pearl handled switchknife.

* * *

HOMICIDE Detective St. James Traut said Caraher "is definitely the stabber" who slashed eight persons in Chicago since Monday, six of them on Friday.

Four of the knife victims identified Caraher as their assailant.

"I never stabbed nobody. I was doing a service," Caraher rambled on at the Racine Avenue police station. Earlier he had told a newsman he went on a stabbing spree "because they're trying to hold me up."

No charges have been filed against Caraher.

Caraher was caught after Jimmy Darnell, 20, and Ted Daniels, 35, saw him threaten Christine Uczciwek, 14, and Jeannie Nytz, 12. The girls were backing away from Caraher and crying.

Darnell and Daniels yelled at him and he suddenly jabbed a knife into Christine's arm.

Picking up rocks and other debris, the men gave chase.

A photostat of Caraher's army discharge found in his hotel room showed he was honorably discharged as a private in 1944 for medical reasons.

Police said they also found a long rambling essay referring to the Kaiser, the Germany army and several minority groups.

Ohio's GOP 'Team' Plans Unit Campaign

COLUMBUS (AP) — Republican state officeholders will campaign together next year rather than individually as in the past. The decision was reached Friday at a closed meeting of the GOP State Committee here.

The agreement on a caravan-style election campaign virtually assures re-election of Gov. C. William O'Neill, U.S. Sen. John W. Bricker and others on the Republican "team," party politicians predicted.

Besides Bricker and O'Neill, other officeholders attending the meeting were Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert, Treasurer Roger W. Tracy, Auditor James A. Rhodes and Atty. Gen. William Saxbe. Secretary of State Ted Brown was out of town. None has announced for re-election.

State GOP Chairman Ray C. Bliss of Akron, also in attendance, said he and O'Neill will hold a series of congressional district meetings with party officials to map campaign strategy. He said such meetings will aim to help campaigns in rural areas.

Bliss also disclosed that about half of O'Neill's 1956 campaign debt has been paid, and he indicated that the $14,000 balance would be paid by the party.

Squares Dent Dolls, 6-0

The Circleville Band Mothers' pigskin spectacular last night on the local gridiron saw the Round Town Squares edge the Dolls of Hooten Holler, 6-0.

Turning point in the game came when Beetle Bomb Plum (Mrs. Dick Plum) found an opening in the mass confusion and sprinted for a six-pointer. The Dolls threatened several times but were stopped at the goal line on each occasion.

Much to the delight of fans present, the battling females introduced antics unheard of on a gridiron.

Following the coin flipping ceremony, the ladies decided to take a break for tea, complete with tea cart and cups.

* * *

GET BACK Plum appeared to be the sparkplug for the winners, although she suffered several injuries. In one pile up she reportedly suffered a broken fingernail.

Both teams attempted several passes, but somehow the pigskins managed to bounce loose each time—probably due to the moist grass. A field goal try by the Squares failed, but the attempt paid off when the Dolls were penalized 15 yards for roughing the kicker.

Clickenees Greeno made the longest run of the evening, but low and behold it was in the wrong direction. Trickiest play of the night came when Hop Along Ehmling faked a pass by having a piece of string attached to the pigskin, enabling her to retain the ball for a wide end run.

Rough House Ridlon broke loose for a sensational gallop around end but she finally was stopped on a bruising tackle by Hurricane Thompson.

With plenty of physicians on hand for the crucial struggle, Doc Montgomery got in first bid to furnish linament for the pigskin-minded mothers. Chances are his ointments are being put to good use today.

Mrs. Mebs Celebrates 25th Year in Restaurant Business

Mrs. Louis H. Mebs, proprietress of the Franklin Inn, 120 S. Court St., will celebrate her 25th anniversary in the restaurant business tomorrow.

Mrs. Mebs opened her first restaurant on September 8, 1932 in what was the Antill Building on Franklin St. across from the fire house.

In the depths of the Great Depression, Mrs. Mebs started with capital of $150. The first day of business, receipts totaled $7. The first order, Mrs. Mebs recalls, was for a bowl of soup and a dish of peaches.

A short time later she moved her restaurant to the Pickens Building. On October 1, 1941, she moved to her present location, with a seating capacity of 105.

From the beginnings of her restaurant career, Mrs. Mebs has specialized in tasty food. Over the years she has become nationally known for her home made pies and hot rolls.

Albert Friley Mishap Victim

Albert J. Friley, 45, 115½ E. Main St., was injured in a one-car crash yesterday at 4:50 p. m. on Route 23 about one mile north of South Bloomfield.

Friley was treated in Berger Hospital for fractured ribs and possible back and chest injuries.

According to Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover the injured man's car went out of control and crashed into a ditch. He told Hoover that a car in front of him was attempting to make a left turn off the highway, then suddenly veered back into the right lane of traffic. Attempting to pass the car, Friley was forced to apply his brakes, causing his vehicle to crash off the road.

Hoover said the car was demolished. The auto also damaged a utility pole, knocked over a mail box and tore down about 200 feet of wire fence.

Bell Telephone Strike Hinted For Sunday

CLEVELAND (AP) — With 18,600 telephone workers set to walk off their jobs Sunday morning, contract negotiations between the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America are reported deadlocked.

Negotiators met until almost midnight. In a prepared statement issued shortly before the meeting recessed for the night, the union said negotiations had reached an impasse.

The union charged the company with acting "in bad faith by reintroducing issues that have already been resolved."

The situation "does not look good," a CWA spokesman said. He added that the union was prepared to negotiate up to the strike deadline, 6 a.m. Sunday. The old contract expires at midnight tonight.

A company proposal for wage increases ranging from $1.50 to $4 was rejected by the union as inadequate.

In the event of a strike, supervisors will man switchboards, the company said. A strike is expected to have little initial effect on dialing systems but long distance service would be slowed and repair service would also be hampered. Ohio Bell provides service to 19 cities and 26 smaller communities.

$1,200 Limit On Earnings of SS Recipients

Elmer H. Biedenholz, manager of the Chillicothe social security office today reminded Pickaway County social security beneficiaries that they may earn as much as $1,200 a year and not give up any of their monthly benefit checks for the year.

The $1,200 limitation is for all earnings during the years. It includes earnings for both covered and non-covered employment and self-employment.

A booklet, "Facts About Earnings While Receiving Payments" is available at the Chillicothe social security office. Beneficiaries may obtain a copy by writing or telephoning the office or by calling in person.

The Chillicothe office is located at 32 West Main St., Chillicothe. It is open Monday through Fridays, 8:45 a. m. to 4:45 p. m.

Route 752 Bridge To Be Repaired

Bids for major repairs to the Walnut Creek Bridge on Route 752 in Walnut Twp. have been called for by the State Highway Department. The bids will be opened Sept. 17 at department offices in Columbus.

The project calls for replacing the present wood floor with one of corragated steel. Floor surface will be covered with a bituminous pavement. Several cracked sections of the bridge abutments, also will be replaced.

Worship Every Week ---

Christian Union Church Enlarges Sanctuary

Services at the Church of Christ in Christian Union at 430 East Ohio St. will be resumed Sunday, after the annual church camp on the Mt. of Praise Campus. During this time, there have been some improvements made in the church to enlarge the main sanctuary and the vestibule. A new stone front entrance to the church is being constructed.

The Sunday School hour commences at 9:30 a. m. under the direction of the Superintendent, William Smith. The Pastor, the Rev. Richard Humble will deliver the sermon in the morning worship service.

During this time the children from grades one through six will remain in the basement auditorium for Junior Church with Mrs. Richard Humble, director.

The Sunday evening services include Youth Service at 6:30 and the Evangelistic Service at 7:30. In both of these services, special music will be provided by various groups from the church.

Lutheran

This Sunday at 8:30 and 10:45 a. m. in Trinity Lutheran Church, Pastor Carl G. Zehner will begin a new sermon series on the Books of the New Testament.

This week "The Teacher Sent From God" taken from Matthew 7:28 will be his theme. Some of the previous sermon series have been on Persons of the Bible, Biblical Ideas, Bible Guides for Daily Living, Sermons from the Parables, Sermons from the Beatitudes, etc.

In this new series, Pastor Zehner will try to capture the biblical message of an entire book. He states, "Christianity cannot become a living faith until the Bible becomes a living book—alive because of Jesus Christ the Resurrection and the Life. This venture in preaching is to help each member to not only know the Bible books but to sharpen the appetite for personal Bible reading. The message of the Bible is more than words to be heard, it becomes a program to live by! Therefore, these sermons will not be lectures on Bible Books, but an attempt to wed divine truth with human need."

We welcome our choirs back this Sunday, when the adult choir, under the direction of Carl Leist, will lead the singing at the early service and the youth choir, under the direction of Clifford Kerns, will sing at the late service.

The congregation will unite in singing "Holy, Holy, Holy", "Savior, Teach Me Day by Day" and "Love Divine, All Love Excelling."

Matthew Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Binkley, will be baptized at the 10:45 service.

Sunday School will follow the early service at 9:30 a. m. The lesson for the Senior Department this week will be "Baruch, Faithful Secretary" and "Vocational Dependability".

Presbyterian

At the Presbyterian Church the Rev. Donald Mitchell will proceed from the Labor Day message of the past week with a short series of sermons on the general theme: "The Church As The Beloved Community."

There is a strong feeling developing among the general public in answer to growing concern over the act of worship and the observance of the institution of Sunday as a day of rest and of worship.

More people are in the churches of the nation today than were attending twelve years ago, and the values of this movement are obvious by comparison.

But there will be many more people at worship if and when they are given a more definite understanding of worship—the nature and scope of worship—the unique value of it to a growing community of people who are interested in learning to live and love and labor together in harmony and peace and perfection.

With this in mind the Rev. Donald Mitchell will use as the theme of worship for the 10:30 a. m. service at the Presbyterian Church will unvail "The Value of Worship Within the Beloved Community."

Obviously enough this subject will require careful consecutive thought and concern on the part of all, hence the need of following through with a series on "The Beloved Community."

The chosen Scripture basis for this first of the series is the first chapter of St. Paul's letter to the Ephesians.

At the organ, Mrs. Theodore L. Huston will play the Kinder "Toccato", "By The Waters of Babylon" and the Silver "Jubilate Deo."

First Methodist

With vacations over, and the children back in our schools, it is hoped that there will be a great return to church attendance. The minister of First Methodist Church, the Rev. Charles D. Reed, has planned a "Back to Church" emphasis for the duplicate services Sunday morning at 8:30 and 10:45, and will use for his sermon subject "Your Level of Living." The Scripture lesson will be read from the Letter to the Ephesians, the second chapter, verses one through ten.

The Youth Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Larry Graham, will sing in the 8:30 a. m. service. The church has purchased new robes for the youth choir and these will be worn for the first time this Sunday. The robes are light blue with gold and white reversable stoles.

Also as a part of the late worship service a new Director's Music Stand, and two lose leaf hymnals (one for the organist, and one for the director) will be presented for dedication to the memory of George Gerhardt.

Hymns for the services will include: "Blessed Assurance" by Frank J. Crosby; "I Need Thee Every Hour" by Annie S. Hawks; and "Take My Life and Let it be Consecrated Lord to Thee" by France R. Havergal.

The Sacrament of Baptism will be a part of the 8:30 a. m. worship service; and the Reception of Members a part of the 10:45 service.

The Sunday School, under the general direction of Mr. Richard Plum, will meet at 9:30.

E.U.B.

"Can The Dead See Us?" has been chosen by the Rev. O. F. Gibbs for his sermon subject to be delivered Sunday morning at First Evangelical United Brethren Church. The services begin at 9:30 a. m. The Church Choir, directed by Montford Kirkwood, Jr., will sing, "My Jesus I Love Thee" by Ellis.

Miss Lucille Kirkwood, organist, announces the following numbers: Prelude, "What a Friend we have in Jesus" (Converse). Offertory "Morning Prayer" (Herter) and Postlude "Majestic March" (Kern).

Hymns to be sung by the congregation include, "Sweet By and By", and "Home of the Soul".

At the conclusion of the message Mrs. Illey Greeno will sing "Looking This Way."

Raymond Reichelderfer will assist the pastor in the worship service.

Nursery care will be provided for children up to four years old in the nursery rooms of the Service Center.

Sunday School in the children's department will convene in the Service Center at 9:30 a. m. with Miss Marjorie Francis, children's director in charge.

Church School in the youth and adult departments will meet following the worship hour.

The Boy's and Girl's Fellowship will meet in the Service Center following the worship hour with Mrs. Howard Conley and Miss Nancy Jane Gibbs in charge.

Calvary E.U.B.

The Sunday Morning worship service at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church will be given to the children's department.

They will present their "Summer Christmas Tree" program. This program is in the interest of our mission work with the children of the world. This year, the field that has been chosen is the mission school and hospital in Nigeria, Africa.

The Rev. Dale Rough, will present a few facts concerning the work of the school and hospital as it is now in progress.

Specific problems and needs will be presented by June Amann, Glenda Melvin, Ginger Wilson, Ruth Brungs and Teddy Stewart.

The Scripture lesson will be read by Jon Anderson. The passage will be from St. Matthew, 2:1-11.

The Junior Choir will sing: "A Christmas Antiphon" and the Children's department will sing, "The Many, Many Children", and "Lord, I Want to be a Christian".

The Sunday School hour for all departments will begin at 10 a. m. Mrs. Clark Zwayer is the general superintendent. Mrs. W. C. Shasteen is superintendent of the Children's department.

Gospel Center

Guest singers at the Gospel Center Sunday will be Miss Mary Lou Martin and mother from Portsmouth. Mary Lou is widely known throughout Southern Ohio. From the time she was a very small child she has been a popular soloist.

She may be heard in both the 9:30 a. m. service and the 7:30 p. m. service.

The Rev. L. S. Metzler will use as the title of his message "As Men Looking for the Lord".

Sunday school will be held at 9:30 a. m. and the worship service at 10:30 a. m.

St. Philip's

St. Philip's Church resumes its regular schedule of services this Sunday morning as listed elsewhere on this page. As is usual with the regular schedule, the junior choir will sing at the family service and the senior choir at the 10:30 a. m. service.

R. W. Hutzelman, Church School superintendent, has announced that because of the renovation program in the parish house, church school classes will not be held this Sunday following the 9 a. m. service but will begin on Sunday, the 15th.

Following the 9 a. m. service this week, the Wardens and Vestry will meet in extraordinary session.

TOGETHER

Every experience means more when it is shared. When father, mother and children go to church together they are sharing a beautiful experience. When they sing the songs of the gospel, read the Scripture, listen to the sermon, unite in prayer, they are adding to the joy of being together. When they open their hearts to God and pledge allegiance to Him, family life is strengthened. The "togetherness" reaches out to include fellowship with others.

Young people who grow up in the Church, who have a truly Christian home, are blessed with a tremendous advantage. They have learned to work and live with other people for the glory of God and the advancement of His cause. There is strength in the very thought of uniting in work and worship.

Together—what a difference it makes! Does your family go to Church together?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

BRING A FRIEND TO CHURCH WITH YOU

Officers Quitting in Droves

A new worry for the armed forces is the sharp rise in resignations of graduates of the U. S. Military and Naval Academies years before their scheduled retirements.

In fact, the greatest percentage increase has been among men who are resigning three or four years after graduation from these academies—or as soon as they are legally privileged to quit.

One-fourth of the West Point class of 1954 is expected to resign by June 30 next year, the highest resignation rate since World War I. Nearly half of the Annapolis classes of 1946 and 1947 have resigned.

The officers listed opportunities in civil life with higher pay as the major reason for quitting. Other reasons given were instability of family life in the service, problems of schooling for children, poor housing, frequent moving and separation from families.

There was a time when an appointment to West Point or Annapolis was considered a high honor and graduates from those schools were expected to dedicate their life's work to the branch of the service which had given them an education. But the glamor of the schools—and of the services to a certain extent — seems to have worn off.

School's for Young and Old

Approaching school days have cast their magic over the city. The spell is most noticeable in the shopping centers where the young are stocking up on school raiment and assorted paraphernalia.

Back to school time is probably the most exciting of all the year. It is a period full of expectancy and surfeited with hope, free from the letdowns that sometimes come in actuality. For the primary grader now clutching her first pencilbox and the collegian with a new fancy vest, it evokes tingles of anticipation.

In thousands of homes, waning summer is giving way to thoughts of things soon to come: The first leaves of autumn on the campus green, the camaraderie of old friends, the challenge of new knowledge and fresh ideas, bright sunlight streaming into a quiet classroom.

Mother and dad, meanwhile, are having their private thoughts, too. They may be thinking of the family budget, of who will get the car on rainy mornings, of telegrams for additional funds for some far-off college town.

The educational process, it is obvious, is hardly limited to youth alone. In prospect or while in progress, it's an education for young and old alike.

Cardinal Spellman-Spellbinder

By George Sokolsky

In the very mixed community that is New York City, as large in population as some European countries, widespread in area, complex as to race, color, creed, the foremost citizen is Cardinal Francis Spellman, Roman Catholic Archbishop, now celebrating the 25th anniversary of his consecration as Bishop.

It is a curious role that Cardinal Spellman holds in New York. For apart from his episcopal duties in relation to his own church, he has won the affection and support of other religious groups not only by his Irish personality but by an urbane tolerance of the vast differences in human thought and human conduct. These qualities have endeared him to a community that has long known separatism, the distinctions that resulted from wave upon wave of immigrants.

The scions of the earliest settlers, the Dutch and the British, regarded themselves, "Old New York," as a people apart who enjoyed a social primogeniture, as it were. The Irish divided themselves on a basis of wealth, until the difference between a "lace curtain" Irishman and a "shanty" Irishman was as widespread as the difference between an Englishman and an Irishman back in the old country. As for the enormous Jewish population, the German Jews regarded the Russian, Polish and Rumanian Jews as beneath them, and even among the Negroes, there were sectarian distinctions between those who lived in the depths of Harlem and those who rose to the grand heights of Sugar Hill. And so it went throughout the community.

But to Cardinal Spellman, these distinctions meant nothing and among those whom he recognized as friends have been men and women of all these groupings, none of whom he could recognize as more than human beings. Rejecting artificialities of rank, position, creed, Cardinal Spellman has found friendship wherever it was offered.

In the company of Jews or Protestants or even such as regard themselves as "emancipated" from ties of birth and tradition, he is a cheering friend, who speaks his mind frankly and yet inoffensively, a diplomat with a conscience. His capacity for work is enormous and he has not only reorganized his archdiocese until it functions with modern efficiency, but he has managed to bring out qualities and capacities in other men, so that many have left his office to serve in elevated positions in his church. Some day someone will organize a Spellman Alumni Association of Bishops whose careers were started as assistants to the Cardinal.

It used to be that the Cardinal's residence in New York City was known as the "Power House," because it was believed that much of the politics of the city emanated therefrom. Whether that was so in the past, it is not so today. Cardinal Spellman, recognizing that moral force does not require the support of political preferment, has avoided politics altogether.

The Al Smith Memorial Dinner, which is one of his favorite charities, is as much Jewish as Catholic, as much Republican as Democratic. For many years, Tammany was dominated by Irish Catholics and it was assumed that it would always be so. But Carmine DeSapio, of Italian origin, is now the leader of the Democratic Party in city and state and is generally regarded as more literate and liberal-minded than most of his predecessors in Tammany Hall. On the other hand, the leader of the Republican city organization is Thomas J. Curran, an Irish Catholic lawyer of distinction.

The amazing fact of New York, a fact which may well be considered in an understanding of our civilization, is that in New York City live together in "peace and friendship," to use the current Soviet slogan, some 50 races and nationalities, practicing a dozen or more religions, publishing newspapers in all their various tongues and among them stands the personality of a moral colossus, often called, behind his back, the "little man," a term of affection, Cardinal Francis Spellman.

And of an evening, when he takes his walk, perhaps with Louis B. Mayer, his boyhood friend, or Charlie Silver who went as far as the eighth grade in school but now heads the Board of Education, every passerby raises his hat or touches the brim or showers blessings on this very kindly, humble man who does so much for anybody who will let him do for him. Indeed, he is one who washes the feet of his servant.

Post-Nasal Drip Is Normal

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Don't worry about post-nasal drip. It's a natural process and, in the vast majority of cases, causes no harm.

Because of all that has been written about it, I'm sure most of you are familiar with what I mean by post-nasal drip. But just in case you aren't, the term refers to the mucus that keeps running to the rear of your nose and drains down your throat, often following a cold.

At one time or another, just about all of us have a mucous drip. It's the result of our body's effort to throw out the cold germs.

When the mucous glands work overtime to oust the villainous germs, nasal discharge results. The fact that these glands do work extra hard and extra long is nothing to get excited about. It's customary for nature to produce a greater defense than is actually needed and to maintain this defense longer than is needed.

Thus a secretion of mucus, even after you have gotten rid of your cold, is merely a continuation of nature's natural defense output. After all, it took a while for our munitions factories to shut down following the end of World War II. A good many of them are going yet. But that's beside the point.

Of course, other things besides a cold can cause post-nasal drip.

A chief cause is the excessive use of nose drops. Smoking, dust, fumes of various sorts, even changes in temperature, can start the mucus flow.

What should you do about this drip?

In most instances, the best advice simply is to swallow it. It won't hurt you.

If it is clear mucus, it is not a bit dangerous to your health. Even if it does contain a few germs, the hydrochloric acid of your stomach will quickly destroy them.

A purulent discharge from the nose, a discharge containing virulent organisms, is quite another matter. Such a discharge probably means you have sinus trouble. And that's a problem for your doctor to handle.

Sen. Lausche's Vote Record Follows No Definite Pattern

WASHINGTON (AP)—Looking for a key to Democrat Frank J. Lausche's actions in his first year as a senator can be a complicated business.

Certainly it cannot be said that his votes simply have paralleled those of his Ohio Republican colleague, John W. Bricker.

As an example of this, Lausche went along with the most controversial money bill of the session: The $3,400,000,000 foreign aid program. Bricker fought it all the way.

To take a more regional item, Lausche consistently opposed a multi-million dollar proposal to build a stadium in Cleveland for the Pan-American games. Bricker expressed qualified sympathy.

Of course, they have also voted together many times—in favor of the Eisenhower Doctrine in the Mid-East and, in its final draft, the Civil Rights Bill.

Both, too, found themselves on the same side in opposing pay raises for federal employes and in opposing a proposal to build a public power dam at Hells Canyon in the Pacific Northwest.

Now if Bricker's voting record supplies no clue to Lausche's, is there any senator's that does? Lausche says no.

As Lausche puts it: "I voted against practically every measure where I felt the federal government was unduly participating in private business."

That, of course, means such an item as Hells Canyon. But it also, Lausche insists, includes the idea of government subsidies to private business.

So it is on this point—subsidies for business—that Lausche has frequently switched from the conservative GOP camp to the company of the most liberal Democrats in the Senate.

That is why Lausche often teamed with Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill), one of the Senate's strongest liberals.

And the reason was this: Lausche agreed with Douglas in balking at proposals to subsidize ship operators, oil industrialists and airlines.

What all this comes down to is that Lausche claims his guiding philosophy is to oppose federal spending wherever he can.

But he has, on occasion, voted for some pretty heavy outlays of cash—most notably the multi-billion dollar Foreign Aid Bill.

Lausche says he sees nothing inconsistent in this. He says:

"The drastic reductions in that program, instead of resulting in savings, would have produced increased spending on bases overseas."

Blood Transfusion Technique Refined

TOLEDO (AP)—Deaths caused by transfusions of too little or too much blood during surgery have been reduced by as much as 60 per cent by a new technique for measuring blood needs, the head of pathology at Maumee Valley Hospital reports.

The technique also has cut the volume of blood needed for transfusions by approximately 20 per cent, Dr. John G. Snavely told the Ohio Chapter of the American College of Surgeons here.

Dr. Snavely said blood requirements cannot be estimated merely of the patient's weight. For example an obese person might require a smaller transfusion than a slim one since less blood circulates through fatty tissues than through lean muscles.

Ironton Walkout Settlement OKd

IRONTON (AP)—Work will resume at the Dayton Malleable Iron Co. here Monday as workers agreed to accept a company offer and ended their three-week strike.

Shrine To Replace St. Louis Hospital

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Shriners plan to replace an old hospital for crippled children in St. Louis, Mo., with a new 60-bed building.

That's the report today by George M. Saunders of Chicago, secretary for the organization's 17 U. S. hospitals, at the annual convention here of the Great Lakes Shrine Assn.

The Great Lakes convention completed a business session here this morning. A parade and pageant will wind up the two-day meeting here tonight.

Hill Garden by Moonlight Spectacular Scene

Pickaway Club Meets There

If a lot of Pickaway County women are in a pleasantly romantic mood this week, blame it on Loring Hill of Kingston. "Moonlight and Roses" could have been the background theme music when Hill, with his wife's assistance, played host to about 50 members of the Pickaway Garden Club.

The weather was perfect for a picnic style covered-dish supper. The night was cool and crisp. The landscaped grounds were spectacular against a navy-blue, star-spangled sky. The full moon and outdoor floodlights dramatized the splendor of roses and other flowers still in late bloom.

The evening also represented a lot of work on the part of the club members. The culmination of their summer outdoor hours was displayed in a large private flower show of garden annuals and arrangements.

Mrs. Frank B. Cooper of Piketon served as judge for the flower show. Mrs. Cooper is an accredited judge of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc.

After judging, she discussed each entry, illustrating the good points and the faults of each specimen. She gave suggestions on selecting specimen blooms for exhibit, choosing straight stems and, when more than one bloom is called for, selecting three blooms as nearly alike as possible.

It is better, Mrs. Cooper said, to have flowers a little before full bloom than those too far developed. Foliage which will be under water in arrangements should be removed, but in specimen blooms leaves should be left on because these enter into the judging.

Mrs. John Mast was presented a crescent-shaped ceramic vase as the winner of the most award points. Other winners were:

Section I, Specimen Classes—Asters: 1st, Mrs. Robert Burton; 2nd, Mrs. Richard Jones. Bells of Ireland: 1st, Mrs. John Mast; 2nd, Mrs. Turney Pontius; 3rd, Mrs. Schubert Measamer. Celosia: 1st, Mrs. John Mast; 2nd, 3rd and 4th, Mrs. L. E. Foreman. Cosmos: 2nd, Mrs. Turney Pontius.

Marigold, French type: 1st, Mrs. Charles Thompson; 2nd, Mrs. Mast; 3rd, Mrs. Loring Evans. Marigold, African type: 1st, Mrs. Jones; 2nd, Mrs. Measamer; 3rd, Mrs. Thompson. Bedding Petunias: 1st, Mrs. James Scott; 2nd, Mrs. E. E. Porter. Ruffled Petunias: 1st, Mrs. Jones; 2nd, Mrs. Scott.

Verbena: 1st, Mrs. Measamer; 2nd, Mrs. Mast. Snapdragon: 1st, Mrs. Pontius; 2nd, Mrs. Thompson. Zinnia, Mamouth: 1st, Mrs. Mast; 3nd, Mrs. Smith Hulse; 3rd, Mrs. Jones. Zinnia, Fantasy or Cactus: 1st, Mrs. Hulse; 2nd and 3rd, Miss Virginia Hulse. Zinnia, Small pompon: 1st, Mrs. Measamer; 2nd, Mrs. Thompson; 3rd, Mrs. Mast. Any unusual garden annual: 1st and 4th, Mrs. James Scott; 2nd, Miss Virginia Hulse; 3rd, Mrs. Jones.

Section II, Arrangement Classes: Arrangement of Marigolds: 1st, Mrs. Measamer; 2nd, Mrs. L. E. Foreman; 3rd, Mrs. Charles Thompson. Arrangement of Zinnias: 1st, Mrs. Thompson; 2nd, Mrs. Oscar Root; 3rd, Mrs. Measamer. Arrangement of favorite annuals: 1st, Mrs. Pontius; 2nd, Mrs. E. E. Porter; 3rd, Mrs. Russell Clark.

After the flower show, a business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Richard Jones who called for yearly reports from officers and committee chairmen. Mrs. Miller Dunkel was elected recording secretary to replace Mrs. Eugene Thurston who has moved from Circleville to Lancaster.

Members voted to present the Circleville Library with a copy of the "Handbook for Flower Shows."

Flower show schedules were distributed for the County Fair and Pumpkin Show. Mrs. Guy Campbell is director of the Pumpkin Show Flower Show, and members of the club are serving as her committee.

Dr. Jack Beal of Columbus, will present the program for the October meeting when he shows slides and speaks on "Medicinal Plants in the Flower Garden." Miss Virginia Hulse, a club member who is pharmacist with a local drug store, is assisting Dr. Beal in compiling material for a bulletin about drug plants native to Ohio.

At the end of the evening Hill conducted club members on a tour of his extensive grounds, outdoor living terraces and flower gardens. These were in enviable condition in spite of the recent dry weather. Hill modestly stated that the moonlight disguised the imperfections. It must have done a good job, because nobody else could find any.

Morris EUB Ladies Aid Has Meeting

Group singing was the opening number on the program when the Morris Evangelical United Brethren Ladies Aid held a meeting Wednesday at the church. Members selected the song "Trust in Jesus".

Mrs. Carl Anderson was in charge of the devotions.

Reports on the cards and sick calls made included the fact that 67 cards had been sent out since the last meeting and five calls had been made on members who were ill.

Outstanding floral arrangements decorated the church throughout.

The hostesses for the occasion were: Mrs. Wilbur Pontius, Mrs. Albert Musselman and Mrs. Henry Dunkle.

Mrs. Pontius will entertain the group in October.

Pastor and Family Given Welcome Back Reception

Approximately 55 members of Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church, met in the annex for a "Welcome Back Party" for the Rev. Dale Rough and his family. Rev. Rough was reassigned to Calvary Church for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Earl Millirons was in charge of the program. She accompanied the group in singing several hymns. Rev. Rough had the devotionals. He reminded the group to be thankful for all things.

Marilyn Zwayer gave a reading "A Used Car For Sale"

Dale DeLong favored the group with a trombone solo "How Great Thou Art", after which Mrs. Andrew Goeller and Mrs. Millirons sang the words. This is theme song of the Billy Graham Campaign in New York.

The pastor and his wife received several beautiful gifts from various classes: the Homebuilders Class, presented a table lamp; the Crusaders Class, a planter for the mantle; Dorcas Pathfinder Class, linen table cloth and napkins; Trail Makers Class, two blue corduroy pillows; Men's Bible Class, TV lamp.

Marcia Rough received a red purse and David Rough was given a flannel shirt.

Mrs. Cary Shasteen was awarded first prize as winner of the evening game.

After the program a decorated cake with the words "Welcome Back" was served to the group with ice cream.

The refreshment table was decorated with bouquets of roses and pink tapers in silver holders.

Serving as hostesses were Mrs. Joseph Brink, Mrs. Manley Carothers and Mrs. Shasteen.

Central Atlantic Region, State Combine Conventions

Cleveland Host To Garden Clubs

Cleveland is host city for the combined Central Atlantic Region Conference and the 30th Annual Meeting of the Garden Club of Ohio, Inc., on September 24th and 25th. The Hotel Cleveland will be headquarters for two exciting and stimulating days that have been planned around the theme, "The Heritage of the Western Reserve".

The first day's program is dedicated to the National Council of State Garden Clubs as a whole, and to the Central Atlantic Region in particular. National Council's President, Mrs. Daniel J. Mooney, Butte, Mont., will bring greetings, and a warm welcome will be extended by Ohio's President, Mrs. James L. Fisher, Youngstown.

The Tuesday morning session will be devoted to a panel discussion by the state presidents of the Central Atlantic Region: Mrs. Maxwell W. Steele, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Dunham C. Jones, of New York; Mrs. Clarence W. Slocum, of New Jersey; Mrs. Henry K. Douglas Cotton, of Maryland; Mrs. Benjamin W. Thoron, of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. Fisher.

Decorative theme for the noon luncheon will be "Autumn in the Western Reserve". The illustrated lecture immediately following, by Mr. Carl Buchheister on "A Natural Heritage in Pictorial Story", is on a subject close to the hearts of everyone, everywhere—especially garden-clubbers.

Mr. Buchheister is Vice-President of the National Audubon Society and his vivacious talks, illustrated by the color motion pictures, taken by some of the country's leading natural science photographers, have been extremely popular with audiences everywhere.

The pilgrimage scheduled for the first afternoon will be a bus trip to a number of selected spots of culture and beauty in the city of Cleveland and its suburbs. The Garden Center of Greater Cleveland and the Fine Arts Gardens will be visited as well as a number of beautiful home gardens. The tour will end with a tea in the gardns of Mrs. Samuel A. Horvitz, Shaker Heights.

The 8 o'clock banquet will use for its decorative theme, "The Thirtieth Anniversary of the Garden Club of Ohio". Three of Ohio's most accomplished arrangers will present a program, "Flower Arrangement Inherits the Art of the Ages". Zelda Wyatt Schulke, Beverly Stadler, and Lois Everett will be the arrangers, with Mrs. Schulke also acting as mistress of ceremonies.

Sept. 25 will be Garden Club of Ohio's Annual Meeting Day. Morning agenda will include State reports and election of officers for the coming year. State Awards will be made at this time. Guest speaker after luncheon will be A. W. Short, whose subject is "Conservation IS Everybody's Business".

Short is a veteran supervisor with Ohio's Department of Education. The afternoon will feature a "Fashions and Flowers are Relatives" style show, arranged by Mrs. Edward W. Stage, Cleveland Regional Vice-President.

Mrs. A. Ralph Shoemake, Dayton, and Mrs. Earl J. Vallen, of Akron, are Co-Chairmen for the Garden Club of Ohio Convention Committee. Mrs. W. A. Williams is Cleveland Coordinator.

Presbyterian Women To Meet Friday

When the Presbyterian Women's Association holds its fall meeting Friday Mrs. Ormand C. Dewey, Washington C. H., Presbyterial president, will be the speaker. Group A will be in charge of the meeting which will be held at 2:30 p. m. in the social rooms of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Dunkel To Direct Music At Big Meeting

Mrs. Ralph Dunkel, Walnut Twp., will direct the music for the meeting of the National Home Demonstration Council to be held Sunday through Wednesday. This national meeting, which is being held for the first time in Ohio, will take place at the new Mershon Auditorium on Ohio State Campus, Columbus.

More than 2000 women from all over the United States, Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands will convene at this session.

A Pickaway County trio will sing Monday morning for the group. Making up the trio are: Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, Mrs. Richard Pettit, and Mrs. Dunkel.

Their accompanist will be Mrs. Dick Tootle.

Child Culture League Meets

The first meeting of the Child Culture League was held Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. James Trimmer, with seventeen members in attendance.

Attending the meeting as a guest was Mrs. Ann Callihan, Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Callihan was the first president of the Child Culture League when it was organized nine years ago. The club plans to have all the past-presidents of the organization as guests in succession to their meetings this year.

Plans were made to hold a rummage sale September 20th and 21st. Mrs. Richard Davis is the chairman in charge of this project.

After the business meeting, members enjoyed an outdoor wiener roast, refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Thelma Trimmer and her co-hostess, Mrs. Clarence Hancher.

Round of Pre-Nuptials Parties Honor Miss Lutz

Wedding to Be Monday at 4:30 P.M.

A number of pre-nuptial functions have been given for Miss Evelyn Lutz, bride-elect of Mr. Richard Lind Dunham whose open church wedding will be an event of Monday.

Miss Lutz has asked her twin sister, Miss Emily Lutz to be maid of honor and her niece, Melanie Beth Brehmer to be the flower girl.

The bridegroom-to-be is having Mr. H. Sidney Duncombe, Columbus, for best man. The wedding will take place at 4:30 p. m. in St. Philips Episcopal Church with the Rev. Jack C. Bennett officiating.

A reception will follow at Pickaway Country Club.

Mrs. Robert Brehmer Jr., Atwater Ave., entertained Thursday at a tea honoring the bride-to-be who is her sister. The tea was held at the Brehmer home. Guests were invited for the hours of 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. and 3:30 to 4:30 p. m.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Brehmer, the bride-elect and her twin sister, Miss Emily Lutz, Mrs. Norton Dunham, Rochester, N. Y., who is here to attend her son's wedding and Miss Lutz's mother, Mrs. George Fickardt.

About 40 guests were in attendance.

Mrs. Brehmer's table was centered with an arrangement of pink carnations, white snapdragons and tuberoses. A matching arrangement was on the mantle.

Presiding at the table were Mrs. David Yates, Mrs. M. A. Yates, Mrs. Glenn McCoy, Williamsport, and Mrs. William Lutz, Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Yates and Mr. and Mrs. David Yates were hosts at a family dinner party Friday evening at Pickaway Country Club. Present for this occasion were the bride-elect and Richard Dunham, Mrs. Dunham, Miss Emily Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brehmer Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Fickardt and Mrs. Clarence Hott.

Mrs. Clark Will and her son, Charles Will, are entertaining today at an afternoon cocktail party for Miss Lutz and Mr. Dunham. Mr. and Mrs. Fickardt will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner the evening before the wedding.

Ashville Unit In 14-0 Win

Hoover Brothers' TDs Clip Millersport

Ashville High's Broncos, participating in 11-man football for the first time, got off to a good start last night, posting a 14-0 decision over Millersport in a grid preview at Frankfort.

Halfback Dick Hoover scored the first touchdown for the Broncos on a short run through the line. Brother Bob Hoover tallied the other TD, snagging a pass from halfback Hollenback. The play covered about 50 yards.

Playing a two-quarter practice scrimmage, the Broncos displayed some rugged defense and a smooth-running offense.

Participating in six-man football until this year, Coach Russ Gregg is utilizing a winged-T offense with a variation defense.

Quarterbacking duties last night were handled by Bill Boyer, with Hoover and Hollenback working at the halfback spots. Acord was the starting fullback.

Infield Flubs Prove Costly To Indians

DETROIT (AP) — The infield grounder, normally a routine out, is turning into the Detroit Tigers' biggest scoring threat against the Cleveland Indians.

At Cleveland last week, the Indian infield committed four errors as the result of infield bounders, allowing the Tigers to score four unearned runs. The Indians hung on long enough to win that game 6-5 in 10 innings.

The Tribe infield turned a potential doubleplay into a three-run Detroit rally Friday night and lost to the Tigers, 5-2.

With the score tied 2-2 in the sixth and one out, the Tigers loaded the bases with a single and two walks. Pitcher Jim Bunning came to bat and bounced a grounder to shortstop Chico Carrasquel.

Carrasquel fumbled the ball and one run scored. He recovered and flipped the ball to second baseman Bobby Avila, attempting to force Reno Bertoia coming down from first. The toss was too late. Avila hurried off a throw to first base trying to get Bunning but the throw went into the Detroit dugout. Two more runs scored, Bunning ended up on third base and the Tigers won the game.

Early Wynn, bidding for his 14th victory, started for the Indians and was the loser, his 16th. He pitched six innings, was rapped for seven hits, all five runs.

Mike Garcia, bidding for his fourth straight victory, will pitch for Cleveland today. He will oppose Frank Lary.

Columbus Jets Doomed To Tailend Finish

COLUMBUS (AP)—Doomed to finish no higher than last year, and perhaps one notch lower, the Columbus Jets today enter the last two days of the International League season.

The best the Jets can do is finish seventh, the same slot they ended up in last season. At worst, they will wind up in last place. They lost Friday night to Richmond, 2-1.

'Dead' Teams Refusing To Stay That Way

Chisox Still Insisting They Have Chance To Win Pennant in AL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ever watch a bunch of kids playing cops and robbers, where the "dead" guys get up and start blasting away again? That's just what's happening in the major league pennant races. The dead guys won't stay chilled.

In the American, New York's Yankees, apparently home free a while ago, are down to a 4½-game lead again. They booted a two-run lead and lost 4-3 at Washington Friday night while the Chicago White Sox beat Kansas City 4-3 on a ninth-inning homer by relief pitcher Dixie Howell that again put them just three games behind in the lost column.

In the National, Milwaukee's Braves, looking like a cinch to clinch it quick after a Labor Day doubleheader sweep, blew a 3-0 lead and lost their third in a row, 5-4 to the last-place Cubs.

They held on to a 6½-game lead as second-place St. Louis let a 4-2 edge slip away in a 5-4 Cincinnati victory. Brooklyn's Dodgers (remember those old gaffers?) now are only seven games behind after winning their third straight with a 3-0 job on the New York Giants.

Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia 3-2 on Hank Foiles' solo home run in the sixth that gave righthander Ron (7-15) Kline his fifth straight.

In the other AL games, Detroit defeated Cleveland with Jim Bunning winning his 17th, and Boston closed fast to nip Baltimore 4-3 with Gene Stephens, subbing for Ted Williams, one of the big guns.

The Yankees dropped this one with two out in the ninth. An error by second baseman Jerry Coleman enabled the tie-breaking run to score after the Nats had loaded the bases with three walks from loser Bob Grim.

Washington chased Sal Maglie, making his starting debut as a Yankee, with two runs that tied it 3-all in the seventh while Truman Clevenger and Bud Byerly four-hit the champs. Byerly won his sixth.

The White Sox scrambled from behind with a run in the sixth that junked Alex Kellner's three-hit shutout, then gained a tie with two in the eighth on singles by Luis Aparicio, Nellie Fox, Minnie Minoso and Sherm Lollar.

Howell then belted his third home run of the year to beat reliever Wally Burnette with one out in the ninth.

Bob Trowbridge had the Cubs blaned on four hits again until they bagged their five in the seventh. It all started with a one-out error by Ed Mathews. Then ex-Brave Chuck Tanner singled with the bases loaded for two, Ernie Banks doubled for one and Walt Moryn closed it with a two-run single. Bob Rush won his fifth with relief help.

The Redlegs, who had consecutive home runs from Frank Robinson and George Crowe in the first, nailed it with three in the sixth, two on Jerry Lynch's pinch-hit home run. It was the 10th pinch homer of the year for the Redlegs, tying the NL record set by the 1954 Giants.

Willard Schmidt lost his second in relief of Larry Jackson. Southpaw Don Gross won it.

Johnny Podres three-hit the Giants, allowing none after the fifth, for his 11th victory and sixth shutout, tops in the majors. The Brooks had 10 hits, two each by Carl Furillo, and Gino Cimoli who figured in the insurance runs after Elmer Valo's first inning homer off loser Ray Crone.

The Red Sox, shut out for six by Hec Brown, scored two in the seventh on Jackie Jensen's 20th homer, scored again in the eighth on Stephens' single and won it in the ninth on Pete Daley's two-out double off Billy Loes.

Midwest College Footballers Prep for Coming Campaigns

CHICAGO (AP)—Midwest football briefs:

Michigan State—Punting will be as good this season as the Spartans ever have had, coach Duffy Daugherty says. Among the top toe-men are Blanche Martin of River Rouge, Mich., and Bob Bereich, Summit, Ill.

Purdue — Both veteran junior tackles are on the sidelines—Nick Mumley with a bruised shoulder and Wayne Farmer who is recovering from a back operation this summer. Farmer is expected to report for the first time Monday.

Indiana — Sophomore tailback Vic Jones and junior fullback Chuck Kelly were singled out for praise after the Hoosiers' first full-scale scrimmage.

Wisconsin — Sydney Williams, starting quarterback last year, was tabbed as much improved by coach Milt Bruhn. "He's been thinking football all summer and is deadly in earnest to do a good job," said the coach.

Illinois — Various ailments kept four players from taking part in the Illini's first scrimmage. Sidelined were end Dave Rewerts, center Ken Sutter, No. 2 center Bob Henderson and tackle Don Yeazel. Fullback Jack Delveaux suffered a dislocated thumb in the workout.

Northwestern — Quarterback Chip Holcomb, son of the Wildcats' athletic director, worked in the No. 1 position in an initial scrimmage. He hit backs Wilmer Fowler and Bob Mc Kiever with long passes as the first team scored two touchdowns.

Ohio State—Don Fronk is the fourth center to be sidelined with injuries. Ed Breehl has taken over the job until one of the four recovers.

Michigan—Fullback John Herrnstein and left end Gary Prahst missed the second straight day of scrimmaging with knee injuries. End Chuck Teuscher scored three times with passes, including a 50-yarder from halfback Fred Julian.

Minnesota — Billy Martin, a sophomore from Chicago, replaced Bob Soltis as the No. 1 left halfback. Sophomore Jerry Shetler moved in as center on the first string.

Iowa—Fullback John Nocera, a Youngstown, Ohio, junior, burst through for long gains in a scrimmage. Quarterback Randy Duncan and halfbacks Bill Gravel and Mike Hagler rounded out the No. 1 backfield.

Notre Dame — Halfback Jim Just, who scored three touchdowns in Notre Dame's spring game, reported for action after a bout with the Asian flu.

Marquette—An hour-long scrimmage was held with at least six players out of 54 on the training roster absent with minor ailments.

Giants Draw Crowds Only if Bums Present

NEW YORK (AP)—Want a simple reason for the New York Giants' planned shift to San Francisco? They've been able to count 20,000 or more cash customers at the Polo Grounds only five times this season—and it was Brooklyn's hated Dodgers who lured 'em in.

The old rivalry paid off again Friday night with 21,373 paying patrons on hand as the Brooks defeated the Giants 3-0 in the last scheduled night game of the season in the Polo Grounds.

Chisox Fortunes Linked to Nellie

CHICAGO (AP)—Mighty Mite Nellie Fox, convinced the Chicago White Sox can win the American League pennant, keeps his team "hanging tough" with his unbelievable scrappy play.

Fox "is the big reason we're still in the running," says manager Al Lopez. "Without him, I'd hate to think where we'd be."

The dimunitive second baseman collected three hits and a walk Friday night as the second place Sox whipped Kansas City, 4-3, to close the gap in the American League race to 4½ games while New York dropped a 4-3 decision to the Washington Senators.

Redlegs Find Old Home Run Talent Again

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The old trademark of the Cincinnati Redlegs, the home run, is back.

The Reds whacked three four-base blows Friday night to highlight a 5-4 shading of the St. Louis Cardinals and to equal a National League record.

A two-run homer pinch hit by Jerry Lynch in a three-run fifth inning provided both the winning margin and the record.

It was the 10th pinch-hit round-trip hit for the Rhinelanders this year, equalling a mark set by the New York Giants in 1954.

Frank Robinson and George Crowe unlimbered consecutive home runs to give Cincinnati a two-run edge in the first inning.

The advantage didn't last long. The Cards pecked away at starter Don Gross for one run in the second inning on Ken Boyer's home run poke and two more in the fourth. Joe Cunningham started off with a double and three ensuing singles accounted for the two markers.

Cunningham also got in on the Cards' final rally, beating out a bunt in the sixth and darting home on Del Ennis's double.

The Reds finally chased Cardinal starter Larry Jackson in the sixth, hammering out the slender lead that held up for the rest of the game.

The second of three games scheduled here comes today, with Hal Jeffcoat opposing young Von McDaniel on the mound.

Basilio 'Ready' For Sugar Ray

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y. (AP)—Carmen Basilio will break camp here Sunday.

The welterweight champion, who hopes to take Sugar Ray Robinson's middleweight crown Sept. 23, said Friday he was reaching "peak condition."

"All I need now is just a little boxing to keep me sharp," Basilio said. "I'm as ready for Robinson as I'll be."

Basilio said he would continue his workouts in Syracuse and commute to his home in Chittenango, 16 miles away.

Cincinnati Legion '9' In Tournament Finals

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP) — Robert E. Bentley Post 50 of Cincinnati, a three-time U. S. Legion baseball champion, withstood a ninth inning rally by Willamette Heights post of Portland, Ore., Friday night to chalk up an 8-6 victory and advance to the finals of the Little World Series.

Rams Rally Brings Win Over Browns

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Rams won their third game in four tries Friday night with a comeback 20-14 victory over the stumbling Cleveland Browns. The Browns now have a 1-3 record along the National Football League exhibition trail.

A fourth quarter, three - play maneuver good for 78 yards turned the trick for the Rams, who scored in every period. Jon Arnett returned a punt for 34, Ron Waller scooted for 35 on the next play and Joe Marconi bulled the final nine to win it.

The Browns scored in the first quarter on Jim Brown's two yard plunge and in the last period on Lew Carpenter's one yard buck. Tank Younger scored the other Ram TD, while Paige Cothren kicked two field goals for the Rams.

Olympic decathlon champion Milt Campbell, in his first and only appearance as a pro, returned a kickoff for Cleveland 35 yards. It was an impressive debut for the big fellow, who joined the club just a day or two ago.

Tonight, the world champion New York Giants are in Boston against the Green Bay Packers and the San Francisco 49ers play the Chicago Cards in Seattle. There is a three-game card on Sunday, with the Chicago Bears and the Philadelphia Eagles meeting in Kansas City, the Baltimore Colts and Washington Redskins at Baltimore and Detroit and Pittsburgh tangling at Buffalo, N. Y.

Miceli Wraps Up Saxton's Career

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ex-welterweight champion Johnny Saxton, his comeback campaign wrecked at the start by unranked Joe Miceli, says he has had enough and will quit the ring.

Miceli applied the finishing touch to Saxton's rapid descent from boxing heights Friday night.

Jumping Joe, a 28-year-old New Yorker who has been in and out of the ratings for years, clouted the former king of the 147-pounders unmercifully for three rounds at Capitol Arena. Saxton went into the fight a 2-1 favorite.

Dr. Clark Halstead, the ring physician, examined Saxton after the third and declared Johnny unfit to continue.

County Fair Racing Boosted By New Ohio Legislation

The remainder of a new law to give county fairs from $2500 to $7500 a year financial assistance will become effective September 10, Rep. Ed Wallace of Pickaway County said today.

The law levies an additional half of one per cent on all wagers on running and harness races in Ohio, the money to be placed in an "Ohio Fairs Fund".

The levy, which became effective June 11 when it was allowed to become law without the governor's signature, will amount to an estimated $614,000 a year.

It allows to all county fairs, starting March 1, 1958, $2,500 a year for general operation expenses. To fairs conducting horse races, an additional $2,500 for purpses is allowed, plus $500 for track maintenance and other expenses for horse races and colt stakes. To at least half of the county and independent fairs, there will be an additional $2,000 for four colt stakes to provide a race for two and three-year-olds, with a minimum purse of $1000 for each race.

The Ohio State Fair will get $60,000 annually for purse money among four colt races for standardbred horses.

ANOTHER MAJOR LAW, passed by the 102nd General Assembly of Ohio and effective September 14, will permit the director of natural resources to issue revenue bonds for the improvement of facilities at state parks.

This, Rep. Wallace said, will permit the natural resources department to make needed improvements at state parks which have been delayed because of lack of funds. The bonds will be retired with revenues from the improved facilities.

Also to help in providing better parks for Ohioans will be another law, effective September 14, permitting voters to approve a park district levy by a bare majority, instead of 60 per cent.

Other new laws effective the week of September 8-14 will:

Permit juvenile courts to require negligent parents of a delinquent child, placed on probation, to post a bond up to $500 to try to force more parental control over the child; if the the child commits a second offense and the court finds the parent has not exercised reasonable control, it may order the bond forfeited, effective September 13.

Create a state rotary fund to help villages finance planning, designing and construction of sewer and water improvements, effective September 9.

Set up a state atomic energy advisory board and the post of coordinator of atomic development activities, effective September 9.

Permit a school superintendent or school district executive head to suspend an unruly pupil up to ten days, pending a hearing before the school board, effective September 9.

* * *

ALLOW THE state health department to prohibit non-medical use of fluoroscopes which emit harmful radiation, effective September 9.

Raise the present division of insurance to cabinet level as a department of insurance, with a superintendent as director at its head, effective September 9.

Permit detention of suspected shoplifters by a merchant or merchant's employee, effective September 13.

Permit sale of unclaimed and unwanted dogs for medical research, effective September 13.

Give cost-of-living increases in pensions of public and school employees and teachers who retired before June 29, 1955, starting October 1, effective September 13.

Require that juvenile traffic offenders be so classed, instead of as delinquents, and increasing power of juvenile courts to fine an offender and to suspend or revoke driver's and auto licenses, effective September 14.

Set a 15-mile speed limit in alleys, effective September 14.

Prohibit picketing of residence, cemetery, funeral home, church, synagogue or other establishment for an hour before and during the funeral services, effective September 13.

Create a research program in alcoholism in Ohio State University's college of medicine, effective September 13.

* * *

ALLOW INLANDIA, Incorporated, to apply to the federal government to establish a foreign trade zone in Logan county, effective September 13.

Require flood lighting of the State House, effective September 13.

Create a commission to erect a new state office building, effective September 13.

Prohibit advertising of retail prices of beer, effective September 10.

Radio-TV Critic Outlines New Television Prospects

By BOB THOMAS
AP Radio-TV Critic

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—As far as television is concerned, this is the start of the new year.

But will it be a happy one? If it's anything like last year, the answer is no. What a dud that one was! Except for some topnotch dramas on Playhouse 90 and a few other shows, the 1956-57 season will go down in TV history as the year the money-hungry contest winners pushed entertainment aside.

So what's ahead for 1957-58? Step right up while I gaze into my crystal TV tube.

Here are my predictions:

A half-dozen "adult" westerns will bite the dust because gunshy adults will be getting too much of a good thing.

The paucity of comedy shows will prove a boon to the ratings of Red Skelton, Danny Thomas, George Gobel, Phil Silvers and the few remaining TV funnymen.

Steve Allen will overtake Ed Sullivan in the ratings because Allen offers a funnier show, while comedy has always been Sullivan's short suit.

NBC's ailing "Tonight" show will give up the ghost, torpedoed by the late, late movie.

The spectaculars on all networks will continue to net the biggest audiences, proving that viewers crave an occasional dessert to go with their steady diet.

Lucille Ball will again draw her stratospheric ratings with the stretched-out version of "I Love Lucy".

Groucho Marx will have trouble with competition from the new "Mark of Zorro" show.

The public will weary of the flood of singing emcees on TV, but Frank Sinatra's one who will be among the most popular new entries.

The No. 1 TV show of the nation will be—

Oops, the crystal tube grows a bit smoggy here. I'll have that prediction for you at a later date, perhaps next June.

Presbyterians Booked

CINCINNATI (AP)—More than 300 Ohioans are expected to take part in the 10th annual rally and retreat here of the Ohio Synod Council of Presbyterian Men, Sept. 20.

GI To Face Accusation

Parochial School Shut

URBANA (AP)—St. Mary's Parochial High School here closed its doors Friday after 48 years because enrollment dwindled. Only 32 students registered for fall classes, 17 fewer than last year.

Max Liebman Takes It Easy

Mr. Spectacular Idle This Video Season

NEW YORK (AP)—Mr. Spectacular is just a television spectator now.

If this be irony, it doesn't bother Max Liebman.

"I assure you there is no bitterness," says the man whose "ML Presents" insignia used to dance all over the nation's screens as producer of everything from "Your Show of Shows" to an unending array of what were known as "spectaculars."

After eight years of frantic coaxial frenzy he is sitting this season out. Even so, Liebman is ruefully concerned over the new airwave pattern. He feels the medium is largely evolving through a phase of "surrender of the artists to the businessmen."

Liebman feels that the scramble for "lowest cost per thousand" (TV's term for getting the biggest audience at the lowest budget) will "inevitably lead into the same rut" that he says blighted radio's heyday.

"The trend is to latch onto anything that is getting the rating at the moment," he says. This he feels stifles every effort to attempt the different, the unusual, the idea that might open new paths.

Although he is still collecting a healthy salary under a five-year contract with NBC, Liebman says he has not yet "met the people who are in charge of programming now. What I can deliver is not wanted at this time." But some of these days, he is sure, "The most gratifying form of all entertainment, comedy, will have to get another chance."

Dentist Handed Fine

CINCINNATI (AP) — Dr. William Schaeffer, 66, Middletown dentist who pleaded guilty to income tax evasion, has been fined $7,500 and given a one-year suspended term.

Wanted Californian Is Nabbed in Dayton

DAYTON (AP)—Police here Friday night arrested James Casey, 33, of Baldwin Park, Calif. They said he is wanted in Tulelake, Calif., for armed robbery.

His 16-year-old bride of one month was held in custody by juvenile authorities. Police said Casey used the money he allegedly took from a 51-year-old man to finance a honeymoon in Mexico.

Ohio Health Care Problems Studied

COLUMBUS (AP) — Gov. C. William O'Neill met Friday with state officials, representatives of Ohio hospitals, and local welfare officials to consider pressing health care problems for the state's old age recipients.

He acted at the request of Wayne B. Foster of Gallipolis, president of the Ohio Hospital Assn. Foster urged action he said is needed because of state curtailment in a health care program for the aged.

Protests followed reduction in medical and health care services by the state because of the limited funds available.

Ohio Market Hogs Show Lower Prices

COLUMBUS (AP)—Prices paid for market hogs in Central Ohio averaged 5 cents lower for the week at $20.80 per hundred, the state Bureau of Markets announced.

Tuesday's price of $20.75-$21.00 was opening for the week, and 25 cents lower than last week's close. Wednesday's price of $21.00 was steady to 25 cents higher. Thursday's price was 25 cents lower at $20.75-$21.00. Friday's price and close for the week was $19.75.

Sow prices were mostly steady for the four-day week at $19.25-$19.75 for choice lightweights. Heavy sows bulked at $15.50.

Tenants Unfurnish Columbus Apartment

COLUMBUS (AP) — Mrs. Martha Hoffman told police she rented a furnished apartment here to a couple. She later visited her tenants. They were gone.

So were the mattress, refrigerator, dinette set, washer, pots, pans and dishes, she said. Now she has an unfurnished apartment for rent.

Segregation Now Dead Issue In Hillsboro School System

HILLSBORO, Ohio (AP) — Hillsboro, which had its elementary school segregation troubles for more than two years, has started into a second year with Negroes and whites peacefully attending the same schools.

Integration in the elementary schools of this Highland County town of 5,100 population was completed last fall and except for some early shyness on the part of the Negro youngsters there was no difficulty.

But for more than two years before that the question of whether the Hillsboro School Board was segregating Negroes was fought back and forth in the courts until the U. S. Supreme Court finally upheld a court of appeals order which directed immediate integration.

The troubles here started when the school board re-zoned the city. It left only Negroes in the old Lincoln school. A few Negro pupils were assigned to the former all white Washington and Webster schools but a group of Negro parents, supported by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, took the issue to federal court. They claimed Negroes were being segregated.

The school board contended it intended to abandon the Lincoln School and integrate Negroes and whites as soon as new buildings could be completed at Webster and Washington.

U. S. District Judge John H. Druffel of Cincinnati upheld the board but was reversed by the court of appeals.

But the court delays gave the city time to complete one of the buildings and last fall integration was completed. The second building was completed in time for the stcond semester last winter.

The Lincoln School was abandoned and bids for its sale were taken by the school board earlier this week.

There are between 60 and 70 Negroes in the elementary schools. Both Negroes and whites have attended the junior and senior high schools here for many years.

There never was any serious disturbance here during the entire time the segregation issue was in dispute although a former county official, opposed to segregation, set fire to the old Lincoln School. The building was not damaged seriously, however, and the official served a prison term for arson.

Last fall when both Negroes and whites entered the then combined Webster and Washington school there was only a handful of onlookers.

The situation has been equally quiet this fall.

"There is nothing like Arkansas here," said one Hillsboro resident last week, referring to the segregation disturbances at Little Rock, Ark.

"It's a dead issue here and the only thing left is the sale of the Lincoln building which probably will come at the next school board meeting."

School Study Planned

COLUMBUS (AP)—Rep. Kenneth F. Berry (R-Coshocton) was named Friday as chairman of a 14-member committee that will make recommendations to the Legislative Service Commission on equalization of school funds.
